EASTER BUNNY VISIT - Ryan and Jeff Morgan pose with the Easter Rabbit at the Little Angel Baby Boutique Saturday. The rabbit also visited Morgan Manor.

Chief narrowed to three

By Monday, the field of candidates for the vacant Placentia Police Chief's job will be narrowed to three from an original field of 53 applicants.

Starting salary for the position vacated by Norm Traub when he accepted a similar position in the city of Orange, is $33,543 with a top scale of $41,396.

Among the narrowed field still under consideration are Placentia police captains Walt Pichon and Jim Robertson.

Two chiefs from other Orange County cities are also among the ten remaining candidates.

Target date for naming a new chief has been set for May 1, 1981.

Congratulations Winners!

Judges selected from scores of entrants in our Easter Coloring Contest. Winners are shown on page 4. Please come to the News-Times Newspapers office at 1399 N. Miller Ave., Anaheim, and pick up your gift certificate. You may then take it to the store awarding your prize. Thank you for your participation and beautiful work!

Placentia Council

After hours, a full disclosure

After almost two hours of fruitless attempts to phrase a motion acceptable to councilwoman Betty Mead, councilman Richard Acton deferred to city administrator Ed Powell to settle the disclosure issue involving applicants for Housing and Community Development Act Funds.

Future participation in the project may depend on the report which Powell suggested be prepared detailing the costs of the program, participation, impact on city staff time and overall effectiveness of the project in Placentia.

Councilmembers Mead and Pete Laborde contend that they must have access to the names and addresses of loan applicants to determine if funds are being expended properly in the La Jolla, Santa Fe and Atwood target areas.

Action taken by previous Placentia City Councils has protected the applicants, and, according to the city attorney, disclosure of prior applicants names by the present council could lead to legal action against the city.

Councilman Don Holt, originally firm in his opposition to disclosure of names and addresses, searched his memory back to the original proposal which was presented to the council prior to the terms of office of all of the other present members of the council.

Holt contended that the information requested by Mead, with the support of Laborde, had been presented in past accountings of the project funds. He also expressed fear that a decision to release names and addresses would ultimately lead to public disclosure of applicants' personal financial statements.

After almost two hours without much progress on the disclosure question Holt expressed his exasperation.

"You keep saying you (Mead) don't want to make this complicated. You are saying that you only want the names and addresses but you are asking for six or seven

S & S exclusive

S&S Realtors has been appointed exclusive representative for the area by the TAREX Relocation Network, a national real estate relocation service organization with headquarters in Salt Lake City.

"Nearly 15 million people transfer across state and county lines yearly," said Frank Szalwinski, president of S&S Realtors and Investments. "Our appointment by TAREX will give us advance information about families moving into our area as well as provide professional assistance to families transferring to other areas of the United States. We will be working with a select nationwide network of over 600 real estate offices to provide no-cost assistance to relocating families. We can now save them time and money at both ends of the move," said Szalwinski.

Chris Bigelow, president of TAREX Relocation, in making the appointment stated, "Frank Szalwinski and the staff at S&S Realtors and Investments have demonstrated for the past six years their professional competence in residential real estate marketing. We are delighted to have them as our exclusive representative in Orange County and outlying areas. The TAREX appointment will add new local and national marketing dimensions to S&S Realtors and Investments.

Placentia News Times

The peculiar evil of silencing the expression of an opinion is, that it is robbing the human race; posterity as well as the existing generation; those who dissent from the opinion, still more who hold it. If the opinion is right, they are deprived of the opportunity of exchanging error for truth; if wrong, they lose, what is almost as great a benefit, the clearer perception and livelier impression of truth, produced by its collision with error.

— John Stuart Mill, in his essay
"Of the Liberty of Thought and Discussion"

Paper drive

Brookhaven Elementary School is having its last paper drive of the school year Saturday, April 25. The drive will be held in the school's parking lot from 9 a.m. to noon.

Papers should be in bags or tied in bundles. Please include all magazines and old phone books this year. The PTA will provide free popsicles to all who contribute.

To the Placentia News-Times:

We would like to thank the Placentia News-Times and all the workers who were involved in the wonderful writeup about our grandson Heath Eklund, who passed away March 4.

Especially Susan Gaede, who wrote the article on Heath; it was especially heartwarming to his parents and grandparents.

kindergarten registration

Children entering kindergarten in the Placentia Unified School District next September may be registered by their local schools from April 20 through May 1. To be eligible for enrollment in Placentia district kindergartens, a child must be 5 by Dec. 2, 1981; must have a birth certificate or other legal documentation of age to present at registration time; and must provide proof of immunization for polio (three doses, the last after age 2); rubeola (red measles, one dose given on or after first birthday), rubella (German measles); mumps; diphtheria, tetanus and whooping cough (four doses, the last given after age 2).

Special days have been designated at most schools, so that parents can meet principals and attend orientation sessions. Parents may enroll children after the designated days if necessary at all schools. When registration is made, parents must include emergency telephone numbers where someone can be reached while children are in school.

Parents are requested to bring their children's complete immunization history for verification for state purposes, explained Margaret Williamson, the district's head nurse. Free immunizations are given by the Orange County Department of Health at the Whitten Center, 900 S. Melrose Ave., Placentia, from 8-11 a.m. and 1-4 p.m. the second Tuesday of each month. Other free immunization centers in the area are in Anaheim at 1133 N. Homer, 8-11 a.m. and 1-4 p.m. Mondays; in Fullerton, First Lutheran Church, 215 N. Lemon, 8-11 a.m. and 1-4 p.m. the fourth Friday of each month; and Orangethorpe Methodist Church, 2351 W. Orangethorpe, 8-11 a.m. and 1-4 p.m. the first Friday of each month. Further information regarding immunizations may be obtained by calling (714) 776-1260.

different things. Here. I'm bending over backwards to try and accomodate what you want, in spite of my better judgement.

Acton made one further attempt to phrase a motion acceptable to Mrs. Mead before Powell suggested a compromise.

What emerged from the discussion, in addition to debate over the disclosure issue, was a feeling, expressed firmly by Mayor Eckenrode and councilman Acton, that participation in the county administered HCDA may not be worthwhile.

Placentia Notebook

By Cec Rospaw

Associated Press moved the story that the president had been shot when Lyn Nofziger came out of the area where Reagan had been taken and said that the event had taken place.

The most critically injured person was press Secretary James Brady. The man many thought would get that job, but opted for a more political role, stepped in, got the facts, made them available, and after speculation and false starts, we watched the AP ticker as it advised editors across the country that the shooting was a fact and that Nofziger was the source.

Those handling copy did not need to know more. Nofziger is not as well liked as Jim Brady had become, which shows some of the wisdom of the choices the president made in putting people between him and the public.

Nofziger is a rumpled, abrasive, straight-talking former newsman (with Copley Press prior to his association with Reagan; Nixon's Herb Klein was from Copley, also). Brady is also a professional, but warmer and more likeable than Nofziger. He also was a less political person.

But newsmen knew that Nofziger was close to Reagan and they also knew that he was someone that understood news and how to handle it.

When he said the president had been shot and was doing fine, the questions stopped, for the while at least, and the news, as they say in the wires, "moved." And it was Nofziger who found Dr. Dennis O'Leary, who was able to explain, clearly and directly, what had happened and what might happen.

The most chilling thing we heard Dr. O'Leary say was that while the surgery performed on the president was "major," it was not difficult, as the team had so much practice with that type of wound.

Whether he was just talking about his hospital or nationwide, it is a rather forbidding image to consider that gunshot wounds in the chest are as routine in these days of super civilization as they were in the days of Tombstone and the OK Corral.

The only jarring event for the student editors dealing with their first chilling handling of an assassination attempt was the statement by Alexander Haig, "I am in charge of things around here." Most had just completed government courses which had taught them that what Haig was saying was not true and his statement was the one thing in an otherwise rather straightforward presentation of events which caused comment and concern.

In the ad that appeared in this newspaper on April 2 for Ruby Begonia's Original Champagne Brunch served from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., the brunch price for adults appeared as $7.95. It is $8.95.

Chamber breakfast

A lighthearted look at the fumbles and foibles of this country's efforts to deal with the sometimes conflicting problems of energy and the environment will be the subject of a "kidding on the square" breakfast talk by TV and radio personality John Milton Kennedy before the Placentia Chamber of Commerce on April 23. The no-host breakfast will be held at Alta Vista Country Club, beginning promptly at 7:30 a.m. and reservations are a must.

Kennedy, whose varied activities as a performer date back to the so-called "Golden Age of Radio," will be appearing as a representative of Southern California Edison. His talk is titled "Our Last Endangered Species — Man," and examines the sometimes hilarious but often tragic consequences of trying to cope with the problems of energy while at the same time protecting the lifestyles of all creatures on the endangered species list.

Tracing the growth of this list from 109 to an estimated 200,000, Kennedy concludes that man occupies the lowest rung on the totem pole, by his own judgment, and is therefore a prime candidate to be next on the list.

Supporting his contention are case histories of such obscure forms of life as the Snail Darter and the Furbish Lousewort, which have enjoyed the backing of agencies ranging up to the U.S. Supreme Court in defeating energy projects deemed contrary to their best interests.

Nestande appointed to presidential committee

Supervisor Bruce Nestande was one of three Californians named by President Ronald Reagan to a new, 42-member Presidential Federalism Advisory Committee to identify and establish the long-term balance between federal, state and local governments.

Nestande, a former state assemblyman and special assistant to then-Gov. Reagan, said he looks forward to the task as especially important in an era of declining government revenues. "The president's war on inflation must be fought and won on the local front," Nestande said. "Local elected officials will get the heat for spending cutbacks. They should be given the authority and responsibility for making the critical decisions about spending priorities.

"It is critical that the proper unit of government deals with identified governmental problems. Presently there simply is too much confusion and overlap with respect to who's responsible for carrying out various programs. That ob-

LINDA VISTA PHARMACY

Progress and improvement of technique is taking place constantly in the field of medicine. Many may go almost unnoticed, yet these new and improved techniques result in enormous cumulative changes in the healing arts over the span of a few years.

One example of this is a new automatic analyzer which tests a single drop of blood for chemical factors which in turn indicate certain diseases. This method can be used by less-skilled technicians, takes less time, less blood and is virtually painless, yet it quickly identifies any of a number of diseases which can then be treated.

When the doctor's treatment involves a prescription, bring it to us for prompt, careful filling by the professional pharmacists at LINDA VISTA PHARMACY. We're open from 9 to 6 p.m., and until 1 p.m. on Saturdays for your convenience.

HANDY HINT: When rearranging heavy furniture, put a child's roller skate under each end, for easy moving.

Toastmasters talked off

Members of Yorba Linda-Placentia Toastmasters Club 3425 of Toastmasters International held their April meeting at Alta Vista Country Club last Tuesday with Rick Matsumoto presiding. Marv Grudem was Toastmaster of the Evening; Mike Lackner, General Evaluator; and Ozzie Cundall, Table Topics Master.

Dan Stackhouse won Best Speaker, John Meursing 'talked off' with the Table Topics Award, Tony Schipsi was the Best Evaluator and Mo Graham went home with the Bone...Award.

Men and women interested in improving their speaking and leadership abilities are welcome at all meetings of the Yorba Linda-Placentia Toastmasters. For information, contact Dan Stackhouse, 528-5221 or attend the April 21 meeting at 6:45 p.m. at Alta Vista. Regular meetings are the first and third Tuesdays of the month.

Open to the public Careers '81

Are you a high school student wondering about your education and/or career future? Are you among the multitude of Comprehensive Employment Training Act (CETA) personnel who will soon be losing their livelihoods? Are you among the many area teachers that may be laid off because of expected cutbacks in school districts?

If you fit into any of these categories, plan to attend the free and open-to-the-public "Careers '81" at Fullerton College.

Slated for 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Wednesday, May 6, the fourth annual FC Career Day will spotlight career and personal growth workshops, a slide show, campus facilities tours and open houses at both the Career Planning and Placement Center and the Re-entry Center.

Although the 9 a.m. opening session is slated for the adjacent Plummer Auditorium, the remaining events will take place in various facilities on the campus at 321 E. Chapman Ave. Counselor Lola Coxford will preside at the opening, at which the keynote speaker will be Dr. Stan Greene, consultant with the State Department of Education. Special guests will be USC All Americans Hobie Brenner and Keith Van Horn.

Also participating will be FC President

Philip W. Borst, with the official welcome; and the Terry Blackley-director Jazz Band. Additional information on the career day is available by calling the Fullerton College

Horse Show

The Fullerton Recreational Riders will hold its annual Quarter Horse Show on Saturday and Sunday April 25-6, at 8 a.m. at its arena on Lakeview Drive at Euclid Street in Fullerton.

Halter, Western and English performance, pleasure driving, youth and amateurs and barrels and poles will comprise the approximately 60 classes to be held over the two-day show.

The judge is Richard C. Shrake from Oregon. Show manager is Robert P. Cordova of Norco. Show secretary is Doris Cordova, 4475 Hillside Ave., Norco, CA 91760. (714) 737-7937.

Additional information is available from Fullerton Recreational Riders' Show Captain Mrs. Hermie Fox at (714) 525-3981 in Fullerton. The show has the approval of the American, Pacific Coast, Valley, Antelope Valley and Southern California quarter horse associations and the Quarter Horse Council.

Easter Egg Hunt

The YWCA of North Orange County is sponsoring its Sixth Annual Easter Egg hunt at Craig Regional Park Saturday, April 18 at 10 a.m. The entrance to the park is on State College Boulevard just south of Imperial Highway. Free parking is available. Any boy or girl kindergarten through second grade may participate in this free event.

Each child will need a basket or bag for collecting eggs. A variety of supervised games will follow the Egg Hunt and prizes will be awarded. Volunteers from Y-teen clubs at Sunny Hills High School, Nicolas and Ladera Vista junior high school will be assisting with activities. For further information, contact Melissa Boals, youth coordinator, YWCA of North Orange County, 871-4488.

YWCA membership is open to all people. The YWCA Purpose is to bring together women and girls of diverse backgrounds to work toward peace, justice, freedom and dignity for all people. The YWCA Imperative is to eliminate racism. The YWCA is a United Way agency.

Young Americans regardless of age

Bands

Thursday, March 19 the Valencia High School Symphonic Band and Wind Ensemble received Superior (I) ratings at the Southern California School Band and Orchestra Association Music Festival. This is the fourth year in a row that both bands have earned the highest rating possible.

The Wind Ensemble performed on the evening showcase, which presents only bands that received all Superior rating the year before. One adjudicator wrote, "Superior musicianship, superior training and emotional involvement characterized your performance this evening. Congratulations on achieving a rare level of excellence."

The next stop for the Valencia High School bands is Mexico City. During spring vacation April 11-18, the bands will visit Mexico City at the invitation of the Mexican government to perform in concert and halftime activities at several professional soccer games. The band has had several fund raising activities to earn the airfare. "The community support has been tremendous," said band director William Sumner, "and we certainly appreciate it." Meals and housing are being provided for the bands, and chaperones through arrangements by the Mexican Cultural Agencies.

The 'Young Americans' are for young Americans too! Regardless of Age.

At the risk of sending volunteers packing and city employees into deep trauma at the mere thought of contending with a theatre audience reminiscent of the late 1950s' Saturday Matinee, (you remember, 75 cartoons and a short or two that kept the kids out of mom's hair for at least half a day), the 'Salute to Broadway' which closes at the Brea Civic-Cultural Center Theatre this weekend is an event for children too.

The fast-paced, two hour show, presented in two parts, gathers up the audience and sweeps it along in an unbroken medleys of song, dance and memories, pausing only briefly to allow pulse rates to return to near-normal levels before plunging into the seething streets of New York's Spanish Harlem for a rumble with the 'Jets' of 'West-side Story.'

Last Saturday night's gathering, 199

strong, settled back comfortably, wondering what to expect from a group of students from across the nation who, it was revealed later, spent the afternoon winning high jump competitions with state record jumps, or were so preoccupied by the fate of a favorite home-state quarterback that, during the show an innocent member of the audience was falsely identified as Vince Farrigamo.

Before the night was over, a steady rhythm of toe-tapping feet could be heard drumming on the carpeted auditorium floor, several songs were punctuated by measured clapping and several paying guests found themselves dancing in the aisles.

Lest the reader shudder at this lack of dignity and refinement on the part of the audience which came out for this special benefit performance for the Brea Theatre League, a brief reminder: when Benny Goodman finally made it to Carnegie Hall, much to the everlasting shagrin of the New York critics, that audience also danced in the aisles.

One need not be a Broadway trivia buff to enjoy this representative pot-pourri of music. In fact, the enthusiasm of the 'Young Americans' excellent staging and the rapid-fire pace of the production provide the ideal setting for a first exposure to show tunes.

If there is a drawback to the show, it is technical and has little to do with the group.

Choruses, sung behind the stage apron, without benefit of microphones are often lost in the rigging where medleys echo and rebound, never reaching the audience. If you already know the tunes, it is not a distraction. If you don't, enjoy the melodies Friday or Saturday night or Sunday afternoon. Bring the kids.

Fund housing project

Orange County supervisors recently approved an increase in the funding of Placentia's Housing Rehabilitation project. The project, which provides low-interest home improvement loans to community homeowners, will receive an additional $45,000. "The project has been successful in giving homeowners the opportunity to make repairs to their homes," Supervisor Bruce Nestande said. "Without the program, these homeowners would have been unable to qualify for a loan." With the increase, the project has received a total of about $192,100.

15th Annual Chapman Economic Forum held in the Hutton Sports Center at Chapman College, 11:30 a.m. April 21.

Miller served as the 65th Secretary to the Treasury. Prior to his appointment, he had been serving as chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, a position he assumed March 8, 1978.

The Chapman Economic Forum is underwritten by 25 sponsors, each of whom purchase a table at $1,000. It has become one of the major annual economic and business related events in Orange County.

It Ain't What It Used To Be!

The log home used to be a one room cabin up in the mountains miles from anywhere. Not any more. Today a Rocky Mountain Log Home harmonizes with almost any environment but it is just as sturdy, just as handsome and just as easy to build as it used to be.

All our logs are specially selected from dry, standing timber in Montana and Idaho. The logs are then notched and grooved and are interchangeable. When erected (you can do it yourself) you've got yourself a home that looks . . . and works like a log home's supposed to.

It's Simple—and that's what builds you a better log home.

Association of Western Hospitals

1,500 hospital volunteers gather

The Volunteer Section of the Association of Western Hospitals convention in Anaheim April 27-9 will draw nearly 1,500 hospital volunteers from the 11 western states, including Alaska and Hawaii. Three days of general sessions will feature outstanding speakers as well as round table discussions and panel presentations to be followed by question and answer periods.

Lorraine Roundy of Placentia, a charter member of Placentia-Linda Community Hospital Guild and past president of the Orange County Council of Hospital Volunteers, is chairperson of the convention and is being assisted by several hospital volunteer leaders in Orange County, including Ella Bigelow, PLCH Guild president; and Penny Fellows, past president of PLCH Guild and current president-elect of OCCHV.

The Monday morning opening session will feature Mr. H. James Zinger, president of Hypmovation, Inc. of Burbank, speaking on "Hypmovation." The Monday afternoon session will feature Nikki Applegate of Hillsborough, who is a communications specialist attached as a volunteer to the Peninsula Hospital in Burlingame, speaking on "Recruitment, Retention and Burnout."

The Tuesday, April 28 luncheon meeting will spotlight Judge Betty L. Elias of North Orange County Municipal Court. Her talk is entitled "Pass It On." The Tuesday afternoon session will deal with "Differing Perspectives on Volunteerism," presented by a panel composed of S. Russell English, Placentia-Linda Community Hospital assistant administrator, a president and executive director of a hospital, a paid director of volunteer services, and an auxiliary president. Lois Welch of Martin Luther Hospital will moderate the panel.

The closing session the morning of Wednesday April 29 will be a round table discussion, "Put Your Problems on the Table," moderated by Lorraine Roundy, convention chairperson. For information regarding registration and reservations please call 879-3868, 528-2191, or 499-2990.

Nestande gets appointment

viously leads to bad administration and waste of taxpayer dollars.

"When President Reagan was governor, we realized that to really work this policy had to be implemented at the federal level," Nestande noted. "When I met the president recently, he commented that he only had plans to create two advisory committees and this is one of them. That's the importance he attributes to this issue."

The bipartisan committee is made up of governors, mayors, congressmen, state legislators, county officials and private citizens, with six individuals appointed from each category.

Senator Paul Laxalt (R-Nev.) will chair both the committee and a 12-member Coordinating Task Force on Federalism, made up of cabinet members and other White House officials.

Nestande served in the state assembly from 1974-80, when he was elected to represent the Third Supervisorial District by 70 percent of votes cast. He was on the governor's staff from 1971-4, serving as special assistant for Intergovernmental Relations and as a deputy to then-special assistant for Administration Michael Deaver, now White House deputy chief of staff.

This statement by President Reagan was issued April 8:

"The Presidential Federalism Advisory Committee that I am forming today is the first step in helping me to restore a proper Constitutional relationship between the federal, state and local governments. Unfortunately, our decentralized system of government has over the years been bent out of shape. The federal government too often has treated elected state and local officials as if they were nothing more than administrative agents for federal authorities."

We walk

The News-Times teamwalks for the March of Dimes. Sunday, April 26, will mark the 11th Annual Superwalk where over 9,000 people will walk, stroll, or run to help the March of Dimes in its efforts to prevent birth defects and to help newborns with defects.

This walk will truly be a national event as over 1,000 walks will be taking place across the country.

Charles Stevens, general chairman of the 2nd Annual Teamwalk, part of the larger Superwalk, feels that the teamwalk is a great opportunity for businesses, civic leaders, clubs and organizations to become involved in community affairs and at the same time increase group morale and enthusiasm, as friendships are renewed along the walk. Stevens reports 84 teams, representing employees or members of Orange County's leading corporations and service organizations, including the entire staff of the News-

Times and Yorba Linda Star, by either walking or sponsoring other employees, will be joining the other walkers and runners.

Something new, and a unique part of Super Sunday, is the one mile Exec Trek. A one mile hike, then brunch at the Chanteclair and a $500 contribution allows an opportunity to join Orange County's finest as they take a step in the right direction in the fight against birth defects.

Running being a popular sport today, the March of Dimes offers a 5 K and 10 K run on a SPA-AAU course, beginning and ending at the Harbor Courthouse.

Rams Coach Ray Malavasi will serve as Honorary Chairman for the Orange County Walk America-Super Sunday. Malavasi, knowing the challenge to win, has joined the March of Dimes to allow the unborn and the newborn to be winners in the battle against birth defects.

For more information on Walk America-Super Sunday or the March of Dimes services, call (714) 979-2270.

EASTER IS EVIDENCE OF IMMORTALITY

Science also teaches everything is immortal—it declares energy is all there is. Energy everlastingly changes itself from one form to another. As we apply this to the energy of human life, we discover we are all immortal.

"What Happened to History?" Will be the Easter lecture theme. Come at 10 a.m. to 5223 E. Orangethorpe, Anaheim. Also, Junior Church at 10 a.m. Excellent parking. 970-0208.

I will look to this advisory committee to help me find ways to restore a proper balance.

"The people who make up state and local governments are as capable as any in Washington, D.C. My administration looks forward to working with them in concrete ways to provide for greater authority and responsibility in the state, counties, cities and towns — to return government to those closest to the people most affected.

"I am particularly pleased that my good friend, Senator Paul Laxalt, who served in county government before being elected lieutenant governor and then governor of the State of Nevada, has agreed to serve as chairman of this committee. I am further pleased that a bipartisan cross-section of governors, state legislators, mayors, county officials and members of Congress has agreed to serve on this committee."
